The 18th March 1886.

No. 216.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi village, which has been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.
3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.
4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.
5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.
6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.
7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.
8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.
9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.

No. 230.—Under Section 23 of the Forest Rules of 1878, the following rates are authorized to be levied upon firewood and charcoal felled or burned in the District jungles of the Bangalore District:—

For Firewood.

- 4 annas per Vaddar cart load.
- 6 do country do.
- 6 pies full head load.
- 3 do half do.

For Charcoal.

- 1 rupee per Vaddar cart load.
- 1½ rupees per country cart load.
- 2 annas per full head load.
- 1 anna per half do.

No person shall cut or burn firewood or charcoal in District jungles or remove the same except under a license or pass granted by the Amildar or District Forest officer or such other official duly authorized, upon payment of the seigniorage duty, and all persons engaged in such felling or burning firewood or charcoal shall abide by the terms of the license or pass and by such directions as the Deputy Commissioner may with the approval of the Inspector General of Forests lay down as regards the class or classes of trees to be felled and the manner in which they shall be cut and removed.

II. All carts laden with firewood or charcoal and all head loads not covered by a license or pass as aforesaid, and brought for sale or otherwise shall be subject to seigniorage duty and the same collected by the Taluk or such other agency at such places as the Deputy Commissioner may appoint with the approval of the Inspector General.

III. All firewood or charcoal felled or burned on private or inam lands or imported from Her Majesty's Territories shall be covered by a free pass, and when so covered shall be exempted from the seigniorage above specified.

IV. All time expired and unutilized licenses shall be null and void, and no refund shall be made for unutilized licenses.

The 31st March 1886.

No. 240.—Under Section 21 of the Forest Rules of the 8th June 1878, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja hereby notifies that the Bili and Kari matti trees (Terminalia Arjuna and Terminalia Tomentosa) are added to the class of Reserved trees in the Mysore Province.

Under Section 23, Clause 2 of the above Forest Rules, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja directs that the term "firewood" shall ordinarily imply dead bamboos, thorns, brushwood, creepers and dead unserviceable wood of the unreserved kinds. If green unreserved wood is cut for firewood, the trees so cut must be mature but unserviceable. By the term "unserviceable" is to be understood soft wooded, crooked, hollow, burnt or otherwise damaged so as to be clearly unfit for any other useful purposes than firewood or charcoal. Trees bearing fruit or other produce, commonly known as forest produce and the right to collect or dispose of which vests in Government, shall not be lopped or cut down for firewood.
